CHAMBER'S QUESTIONS

It is hard to read the questionnaire on the New Deal which the Chamber of Commerce of the United States has submitted to its 1,500 member organizations without feeling that the questions deserve the serious attention not only of the business men to whom they are addressed but of everybody. There are only four questions. They are:

"Should there be extension of federal jurisdiction into matters of state and local concern?"

"Should the federal government at the present time exercise federal spending power without relation to revenue?"

"Should there be government competition with private enterprise for regulatory or other purposes?"

"Should all grants of authority by congress to the executive department of the federal government be within clearly defined limits?"

Maybe it would be worth while to consider where you would place your "yes" and "no" in answering those queries. In the thirteen months before the next election, they, or similar questions, will be asked and answered all up and down this land.

Though the chamber has previously recorded its opinion of specific New Deal legislation, this is its first attempt to place itself on record for or against the New Deal as a new philosophy of government. The questions are based on the O'Leary committee's sharply critical report of laws and trends at Washington. The balloting will end on November 25.

Cabbage growers are up in arms because the New Deal's hog-killing program and resultant high prices for pork have killed the market for sauer kraut. Frank will probably solve this as soon as he gets back from his little jaunt.

If Kansas' Governor Landon doesn't land a nomination next fall on the strength of balancing a budget, maybe one of the large circuses will make him an offer anyway.

There are still 2760 persons on the NRA payroll, presumably waiting for the revival of the outlawed scheme promised by New Dealers.

Maybe we should have a referendum on whether Germany or Japan ought to handle the press censorship in the United States.

You are not getting old until you hate to wear a new suit.

Report Makale Captured

London, Eng., Nov. 1—Exchange Telephone News Agency in Addis Ababa today reported an unofficial announcement that the northern city of Makale had been captured by the Italians. In a Rome dispatch they said the government had received no confirmation of the capture. Confirmation was not received in London.

Patterson Voices Plea

Harrisburg, Nov. 1—Judge Marion D. Patterson, defeated for the Republican Supreme Court nomination, added his voice today with his support of G. O. P. candidates to save local and national government "from economic destruction." The election next Tuesday is the most important in Pennsylvania since the Civil War.

YARDLEY

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Blaker include: Mr. and Mrs. Fred Brooks, Miss Harriett Hoffman, Clifford Black, Trenton, N. J.

Mr. and Mrs. Carlton E. Rich, Mrs. William Fluck and Miss Bessie Harrar, all of Doylestown, were Saturday guests with friends in Yardley.

LANGHORNE

The Epworth League held a Fellowship supper in the church, Sunday evening, followed by the Devotional meeting which was led by Mrs. Garvin R. Peffer.

Miss Dorothy Bispham, of the Pennsylvania Indemnity Corporation, will address the P. T. A. in the high school building, Tuesday evening, November 5th. Her subject will be "Safety."

Three Dead; Probably Monoxide Victims

Cleveland, O., Nov. 1—Three unidentified young men were found dead in an automobile in the rear of a large building here today. A preliminary examination made by police officials said they thought they had died of monoxide gas poisoning. The car bore an Arizona state license.

Water Scarce; Deserts Army

Addis Ababa, Nov. 1—Because he could get only a quarter pint of water, today Sergio Cleretti, 23, deserted his post from the Italian army on the front and now is working in an Addis Ababa garage, so it was learned today.

"It's what we all want—quality at a saving!"

SAYS MRS. K. J. TOBIN, OF BEVERLY HILLS, ILL.

New Low Prices on Calumet... the double-acting baking powder!

"I'VE NEVER had a baking failure with Calumet," Mrs. Tobin adds.

"Calumet would be a real bargain at almost any price—but now that it's selling for the lowest prices in its history, it's quality that every woman can afford!"

And judging by the expectant faces of Richard and Patricia, Mrs. Tobin is not the only member of her family who knows how delicious Calumet cakes always are!

WHY DOES CALUMET give such astonishing "baking luck"? Why do you have to use only one level teaspoonful of Calumet to a cup of sifted flour in most recipes? Why is Calumet different from other baking powders?

It's because of the way Calumet combines two distinct leavening actions. A quick action for the mixing bowl—set free by liquid. A slower action for the oven—set free by heat.

Calumet's double action is so perfectly balanced and controlled that it produces perfect leavening.

Calumet Baking Powder is a product of General Foods.

MRS. TOBIN'S CALUMET CARAMEL CAKE

(3 eggs)

2 cups sifted Swans Down Cake Flour

2 teaspoons Calumet Baking Powder

1/2 teaspoon salt

2/3 cup butter or other shortening

Sift flour once, measure, add baking powder and salt, and sift together 3 times. Cream butter thoroughly, add sugar gradually, and cream together until light and fluffy. Add eggs and beat well. Add flour, alternately with milk, a small amount at a time. Beat after each addition until smooth; add flavoring.

Bake in 2 greased 9-inch layer pans in moderate oven (375° F.) 25 minutes, or until done. Spread caramel frosting between layers and on top and sides of cake. Double recipe to make three 10-inch layers. Sprinkle chopped nuts on sides, if desired.

(All measurements are level.)

MRS. TOBIN'S Calumet Caramel Cake makes any day a party day for her youngsters. And Mr. Tobin appreciates the new Easy-Off Top of the Calumet can. "Easy to pay for and easy to open," is the way he describes Calumet.

AND LOOK AT THE NEW CAN! A simple twist... and the Easy-Off Top lifts off. No delay, no spilling, no broken finger-nails!

Farragut avenue, and Chester Carson, Linden street, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Stearl Schaffer, Philadelphia. Mr. and Mrs. Bakelaar and Mr. Carson will also attend a Halloween party Thursday evening in Gloucester, N. J. Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Collins, Cleveland street, and Mr. and Mrs. William Gillies, East Circle, will be visitors during the week-end of Mr. and Mrs. Adam Herman, Mayfair.

Members of the Senior Christian Endeavor Society of the Presbyterian Church, and their friends, held a Halloween party in the recreation room of the church. Twenty-five were in attendance and enjoyed an evening of games, followed by the serving of Halloween refreshments.

budget for the current year. In this budget, the cost of operation, such as teachers' salaries as set by the State, janitors' salaries, cost of heating the school buildings, cost of repairs, the amount necessary for new text books and supplies, the salary of the medical inspector, the cost of taking census of children, the amount necessary for liquidation of bonded indebtedness, etc., are all considered. Then the amount of income from the State and all other income aside from the taxes is determined, and the tax rate is set at a figure to make up the difference required.

During the year care must be exercised to keep the expenses within the budget figures. For many years the President of the Board has been the chairman of the Finance Committee of the Board and as such has had supervision over its financial affairs. His varied experience and intimate knowledge of school finances has made him an expert in figuring bond issues. Mr. Green has given his services to the school board and has also rendered many valuable services to the municipality without compensation.

Now that Mr. Green is a candidate for re-election, the voters should show their appreciation of his unselfish services, by re-electing him by a large majority.

The total income which the local school board expends each year amounts to about $150,000. It is a fact that cannot be controverted, that to expend this large sum of money wisely, it will call for the election of men and women as directors, who represent the highest type of manhood and womanhood, whose honesty and integrity is above reproach. For the voters to look upon the office of school director as a commonplace office, without responsibility, that can be filled by any person who may desire to run, would be a mistake, that might result disastrously to the schools, and sometime jeopardize the proper expenditure of this large sum of money, entrusted to the directors.

(Concluded Tomorrow)

Quake Shocks Are Felt In Bristol; Throughout East

shocks were felt at 1:05.50 o'clock; 1:06.46 o'clock, and 1:07 o'clock.

In downtown New York, huge buildings in the Wall Street area swayed and shook, awakening hundreds of panic-stricken people.

In Brooklyn thousands of sleepers were awakened and numerous instances of people being thrown out of bed were reported.

In Newark, N. J., a two-family dwelling was collapsed by the tremor, but no one was injured.

For hours after the shocks telephone lines in all the major centers of population throughout the East were flooded with calls to newspaper offices, weather bureaus and scientific institutions from frightened people who wanted to know if there was danger of further quakes.

New York City, because of a peculiar rock formation beneath its towering skyscrapers, had always been thought immune from earth shocks. Many persons especially in the Wall Street area, doubted their senses as they saw the buildings sway before them.

Father Lynch said he was unable to account for the quakes in the East, but denied emphatically that there was any connection between it and the recent shocks in Montana.

All of the New England States were shaken. In Boston, the Custom House tower swayed dangerously, but no stones were dislodged.

Albany and up-state New York felt the tremors sharply. No property damage of consequence was reported, but in Albany, it was said, the twenty-five million dollar capitol building "swung like a rocking chair."

The shocks were noticeable in Buffalo, Rochester, Plattsburgh, Kingston, Saratoga Springs and other up-state communities.

Virtually all of New Jersey reported feeling the tremors. In Camden the shocks were felt for more than 30 seconds and throughout southern New Jersey chairs were pushed around, mirrors slid from the walls and windows were broken.

Atlantic City reported the quakes were felt there, but that none of the skyscraper hotels were damaged. Hundreds of vacationers and night club merry-makers rushed to the Boardwalk for safety, but there were no known injuries.

From Washington came the word that several large buildings had been shaken. The shocks were not felt at the White House, however.

In Canada the shocks were reported to be the worst in a decade. They were felt most distinctly in Ontario around Toronto and Ottawa. The seismograph at the Dominion Observatory was broken by the tremors and telephone wires also were reported out of commission.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 1—(INS)—Thousands of startled residents of Eastern Pennsylvania and southern New Jersey were awakened today by the earth tremors that shook the Atlantic Seaboard.

The tremors were of particular intensity, authorities reported, in North Philadelphia, Merion, Wilmington, Del., and Gibbstown, N. J. The shocks were of such severity at the latter two places that alarmed residents believed powder plants of the Dupont De Nemours and Company had blown up.

J. Donald Haig, operator of the Delaware River tidewater wireless station here reported that the station was endangered for almost a minute when the pier on which it is located started a steady swaying from the shore end.

Crew Levick Oil Company officials on Petty's Island in the Delaware River between this city and Camden, N. J., said their buildings had been shaken sharply, but no apparent damage was done.

Reports from up-state areas told of frightened residents fleeing their homes as the tremors shook pictures from walls, rattled dishes, and broke windows.

Pennsylvania Railroad said its operators in towers along its tracks from Baltimore to north of Chester, a stretch of 200 miles, reported "a slight shiver." There was no damage done as far as could be immediately ascertained.

New Ford Agency Opens With Full Line of Cars

Bucks County Sales and Service, Incorporated, Bristol's newest automobile agency, has taken the Ford and Lincoln franchise that has been held by Thomas A. Collier for the last 12 years. The new firm will conduct its business in the modern building occupied by Collier at Market street and the Highway.

Elwood G. Minster, who needs no introduction in Bristol, being a native of the borough, and identified with the Artesian Products Company for years, and Horace M. Phy, a Philadelphian, who has been service manager for the Cadillac Motor Company in the Quaker City for 15 years, are the members of this new company.

These two men plan to establish the local Ford agency on a high standard. The parts department has been stocked with every kind of motor and body part and the sales room has several new 1936 Model Fords on display. The public is invited to inspect these latest models tomorrow.

COMMUNICATION

Editor Courier:

It has come to my attention that whoever is responsible for the remarks in your column "Sport Scribbles," may kindly advise the disillusioned fan or observer that such observation was not as keen as it might have been.

In re, the player who was banished from the game on Sunday, October 26, at St. Ann's Field for unsportsmanlike conduct. This particular player was banished from the game "not simply sticking up for his club's rights" but for conducting himself on the gridiron in a manner unbecoming a participant, in his attitude and remarks to one or ones who are officiating a contest.

The participant's remarks to the official who was adequately and aptly handling a decision and who at all times, regardless of the situation at hand, deals with fairness and justice, were rude, contemptible, and unbecoming a participant, to say the least, who has been unwieldy in this respect for the extent of the season thus far. This particular player, I do not wish to take to task, however, for the comparatively little experience he has had in football, such should have at least taught him respect for the proper administration of the rules when such rules are administered with fairness and equity as the fans are accustomed to whenever they come to witness a contest on St. Ann's Field.

Thank you,
S. JOSEPH AITA, 2nd.

Remove Veterans From 'Quake Zone'

Helena, Mont., Nov. 1—A special train bearing 90 World War veterans left Helena today for Walla Walla, Wash., taking ex-service men away from the terrors of earthquakes, where another severe shock cost the lives of two men Thursday. The veterans were taken from Fort Harrison and will go to institutions at Walla Walla, Wash., and Roseburg, Ore.

Give Motorists Break

Harrisburg, Nov. 1—Motorists with "a last-minute complex" were given a break today. The State Department changed the date for the deadline to November 12.

War against the drivers who fail to have their cars inspected will begin on Armistice Day. The deadline date would have been today.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gosline, Market street, spent Sunday in South Langhorne, where they were called by the illness of Mr. Gosline's sister, Mrs. Beulah Vanzant.

A NEW FORD DEALER

BUCKS COUNTY SALES & SERVICE INC.

HIGHWAY AT MARKET STREET
BRISTOL, PENNA.

In keeping with the Ford Motor Company policy of providing the highest type of representation in each community the Bucks County Sales & Service, Inc., has been selected to handle the sale and service of Ford cars and trucks.

This new dealership, in addition to furnishing complete Ford service facilities, offers to the people of this locality a better opportunity to become acquainted with the outstanding features of the New Ford V-8. You will be welcome at any time to inspect these cars and to drive them yourself.

The Ford Motor Company policy is founded on the belief that a sale does not complete the transaction with the buyer, but establishes a new obligation to see that the car gives good, economical service.

The Bucks County Sales & Service, Inc., as an Authorized Ford Dealer, is pledged to carry out that policy. Thoroughly trained mechanics, using approved tools and machinery, service Ford cars and trucks. Only genuine Ford parts, priced low, are used. All labor is billed at a suggested standard flat rate.

This new dealership is now open and ready to serve you. We are confident they will do it well.

Keep The Spendthrift Party From The Court House

The candidates on the Democratic Ticket for the County Offices have publicly endorsed the principles and policies of the Roosevelt Administration and the Earle Administration

A Vote for Those Democratic Candidates
Would Mean
That You
Approve and Endorse

The Roosevelt Administration operating at a loss of NINE MILLION, FIVE HUNDRED THOUSAND DOLLARS a day.

The Roosevelt Administration putting this country in debt to the amount of 30 BILLION DOLLARS.

The Roosevelt Administration spending more money in 2 1/2 years than was spent by the Federal Government from the administration of President Washington to that of President Wilson.

The Roosevelt Administration increasing the number of Federal employees by more than 95,000, at a payroll increase of upwards of 100 MILLION DOLLARS.

The slaughtering of millions of pigs and cotton plowed under when millions of our people have to depend upon the Government for food and clothing.

The employment of thousands of persons to enforce the Potato Control Law, which provides fine and imprisonment for anyone who raises more than five bushels without a Federal permit.

Governor Earle loading the people of Pennsylvania with 125 MILLION DOLLARS IN NEW TAXES, which would have been $203,000,000, except for the Republican State Senate.

Governor Earle's continued attempts to scrap the present Constitution of Pennsylvania, and thereby obtain unlimited authority to borrow money upon the public credit, raise taxes, destroy Home Rule and concentrate all powers in the Governor.

The wanton waste, the sinful extravagance, the galling injustice of the Federal-State Democratic political intrigue, under which we have seen hundreds of the Kelly Army of unemployed Philadelphians dumped into Bucks County, to tear up and then rebuild our roads, while 8,000 Bucks Countians are compelled to remain on relief, unable to get work.

THE N. R. A. IS AS DEAD AS KING TUT. THE BLUE EAGLE IS A MOULDY MEMORY. THERE ARE NO CODES TO ADMINISTER AND THERE IS NO LITIGATION PENDING IN THE COURTS AFFECTING THE N. R. A., BUT OVER 3000 EMPLOYEES ARE STILL ON THE GOVERNMENT PAYROLL AT WASHINGTON DRAWING $650,000 IN WAGES EVERY MONTH, WITH NOTHING TO DO BETWEEN PAY DAYS.

SHALL THE COUNTY OF BUCKS, AFTER JANUARY 1, 1936, BE GOVERNED
UNDER THE POLICIES AND PRINCIPLES OF ROOSEVELT AND EARLE?
PREVENT THAT CATASTROPHE VOTE REPUBLICAN

AND REMEMBER THIS

BUCKS COUNTY (a sixth class county), UNDER REPUBLICAN ADMINISTRATION, AMONG ELEVEN COUNTIES OF THE SAME CLASS, HAS—

The Lowest Tax Rate--4Mills
The Lowest Bonded Indebtedness--$125,000
The Lowest Per capita Debt--$1.32

While other counties of the same class have a County tax rate as high as 12 mills; Bonded indebtedness as high as $2,816,000 and a per capita debt up to $37.99.

The candidates for County offices on the Republican Ticket are asking the support of the voters of Bucks County on their qualifications for the offices they seek and their pledge to continue the splendid record the Republican Party has maintained for many years—a steady record of economical, honest and efficient administration of County affairs.

If you want to avoid more and higher taxes—
If you want Bucks County under your own and not outside control—
If you want to retain the Home Rule which the Roosevelt and Earle Administrations both now challenge—
If you want Bucks County work given to Bucks County unemployed—
If you are against a colossal and continued waste of the taxpayers' money never before equalled in this country—
If you want Bucks County administered for your benefit at the lowest possible cost, and its public offices not turned over for exploitation by the Achey-Flood Democratic Machine—
If you do not want the Roosevelt-Earle tax-boosting, money-wasting policies introduced into Bucks County—

FASHION PARADE

By Orry-Kelly

(Famous Hollywood Stylist Writing For International News Service) HOLLYWOOD — (INS) — Velvet leads the style parade!

Hollywood uses velvet for sports... velvet for afternoon... velvet for evening. Stars wear velvet as trimming, velvet as the all-over material. Whether it be employed for a little Ascot scarf, or a full-length coat... velvet is stronger style this year than ever before!

There's reason, too, for this overwhelming unanimity in choice... for velvet has never been so varied, so new and interesting in color, texture and treatments. Of interest, therefore, may be a brief survey of some of the ways I have lately seen it "going to town" in the film colony.

There's Bette Davis. Bette, with her summer penchant for suede garments at an end, has switched wholeheartedly to velvet. In her new picture, "Hard Luck Dame," she begged for it so prettily that she wound up with several costumes of it... and one of them for Spring!

Bagheera... that soft, uncut, drapable velvet in white, forms the basis of one of Bette's formal outfits... The long, trained gown is trimmed on the bodice with solid insets of rhinestones, which also makes the T-strap down the back; the wrap is short, fitted tightly about the natural waistline and ending there, with the large sleeves set in with raglan cut, shoulders, again, being of the solid rhinestone. The Spring number... and note it well because it may be the forerunner of a trend... has a jaunty jacket of white Lyons velvet... the stiff kind... with gold frogs across the chest and belt making it military, while flared skirt and matching Ascot are blue plaid taffeta. In "Freshman Love," Patricia Ellis will wear a black velvet suit... this time the crisp costume velvet... with flaring skirt, and jacket trimmed elaborately with passementerie. Dolores Del Rio, in "Meet the Duchess," is even quainter, wearing the cunningest of afternoon frocks... tight, fitted bodice of black costume velvet having short sleeves and high collar finished with white "wings" like those of a man's Tux collar... the skirt, short, extremely full, of black taffeta dotted at intervals with appliqued "saucers" of the velvet. A wide black suede belt finishes this number off in dashing style.

Not only in pictures, though, does King Velvet go places. In the star's personal lives, velvet is tops... Marlene Dietrich endorsed it by her glamorous appearance at the Trocadero, wearing a slim black velvet gown with brassiere-top, and tiny train... underneath, if you please, the gorgeousness of a floor-length all-silver-fox cape that is said to have cost that star no less than twenty-five thousand dollars. With this costume, a black velvet Renaissance tam, and several wide bracelets of baguette diamonds worn on just one arm, were the outstanding accessories.

"Swathed in velvet" means, this year, that you are swathed in fashion!

BARN PARTY IS HELD ON THE LIPPINCOTT PROPERTY, WEDNESDAY

Award Prizes for Costumes to Mrs. E. Dugan, R. Lukens and W. Colbert

Miss Marie Lippincott, Linden street, was hostess Wednesday evening to members of the Cappa Phi Delta Club, and friends, at a barn party, on the grounds of her residence.

Appropriate decorations were used and the attendants, grotesquely and beautifully garbed and masked, enjoyed an evening of dancing and Halloween games. Music was furnished by a radio.

Participating were: the Misses Dorothy Dugan, Mary Jo, Ann and Rita McGee, and Marie Lippincott, Bristol; Nora Budney, Cornwells; Felicia Lanson, Burlington, N. J.; also Francis Dugan, Arthur Jeffries, Frank Parr, Bristol; Edward Budney, Cornwells; Walter Colbert, Trevoise; Albert Hoffman, Burlington, and Richard Lukens, Philadelphia; Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Dugan, Bristol.

Prizes were given to Mrs. Edmund Dugan, best dressed; Richard Lukens, most comic, and Walter Colbert, most original.

CLOVER CATHOLIC CLUB TO OPPOSE RECS HERE

The unbeaten Clover Catholic Club will attempt to stop the winning streak of the Bristol Recreation Club on Sunday. The Clovers have three wins under their belts with nary a defeat.

Coach Gige Dougherty of the Rees has been concentrating on his reserves with the hope of bolstering up some of his key positions.

In an attempt to strengthen the forward pass offense which did not click so well on Sunday, Coach Dougherty is grooving another back as yet unknown to fill in the ball totting quartet.

The Rees have won four games in a row without being defeated and without another team scoring on them. The localites have piled up 69 points—eleven touchdowns with three extra points. The converting of the boys is quite poor and will have to be bolstered.

YARDLEY

Miss Lottie Davis, Penns Manor, is the house guest of Mrs. Eliza C. Smith.

The Rev. Walter Cresson Pugh entertained the Parish Administration Club which is composed of clergy of the Diocese of Pennsylvania at a luncheon, at the home of Mrs. Robert C. Belleville, 3rd, Somerset. The guest speaker was the Rev. Dr. Tyler, of Ethete, Wyo. Canon Frederick B. Halney, of the Trinity Cathedral, Trenton, N. J., was also a guest at the affair.

Edward Garlits, employed in the Credit Department of Sears, Roebuck and Company, Philadelphia, is now making his home in Philadelphia.

Karl Rembe, who has been confined to his home in River Mawr by illness, is improving.

The Daughters of the King of the St. Andrew's Church met at the home of Mrs. E. C. Smith Monday evening. Mrs. Charles F. Cook was hostess to members of the Women's Guild, Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Harry Pickering is spending sometime with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Hogg, Noble.

Mr. and Mrs. George Worrell have returned from a trip to Baltimore, Md., where they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hagy.

At the Halloween party held in the club rooms of St. Ignatius R. C. Church, Miss Jean Melton received the prize for the best dressed; Misses Lillian Groner, Gladys Miller, and Margaret Doyle, for the best trio; and Miss Ann Smith for the funniest. At the close of the dancing, refreshments were served. The affair was arranged under the direction of Miss Mary Gallagher and Vincent Casey.

BRISTOL BOWLING CLUB DEFEATS ELKS' TEAM

In the Bristol Bowling League, B. C. took all four points from the Elks. Pearson and R. Ratcliffe were high men, with 543 and 539, respectively.

In the National League, Schmidt's Florists won three of the four from Asco, losing the last game by ten pins. Groff was high for Schmidt's with 479, and Lynn 464 for Asco.

In the Federal League, J. A. C. won all four points from Croydon. F. Tomlinson and Simpson were high men with 545 and 516.

CLASSIFIED ADS ARE PROFITABLE

SPORT SHOTS by Maxwell Gordon

Well, we came . . . we saw and were amazed at the new sports center erected in Croydon for the advancement of its pupils in the manly art of self defense . . . This college of hard knocks, to steal a phrase used in reference to the Cambria Club of Philadelphia, is the finest laid out arena in this community.

The seating arrangements are ideal . . . assuring the spectators a good view of the ring from any part of the building and giving them plenty of leg room as well. . . . We understand that there are enough seats to take care of 1300 people.

We had some misgivings when told that a new arena was contemplated in Croydon . . . Our thought was that in order to fill the place the promoters would have to depend on a local crowd . . . because of the transportation facilities between the two towns . . . Well, the local crowd was there Wednesday night and with a large delegation from Bristol filled the place to capacity.

Francis "Gunner" Corrigan did a swell job at announcing the various bouts . . . The loud speaking apparatus installed helped "Gunner" tremendously . . . We saw a lot of familiar faces around the ringside apparently enjoying the battles.

Mass psychology is a funny thing . . . We noticed that someone called to one of the Croydon fighters to let his arms hang down by his side during the rest period between rounds instead of hanging them over the ropes . . . claiming that this posture helped slow down the action of the boxer's heart . . . In no time at all almost every one in the arena was yelling the same thing.

We asked Eddie Moffo, a veteran fighter of the prize ring, if there was anything in the advice of the fans . . . He laughed and replied that there was nothing to it . . . claiming that if the fighter leans back and relaxes it makes no difference where his arms are.

In view of the fact that many counter attractions were happening on Wednesday and the bad weather helping to make it difficult for the fans to get about . . . the large crowd present indicates that the Rescue Squad will benefit handsomely through the promotion of boxing in Croydon.
